

National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces

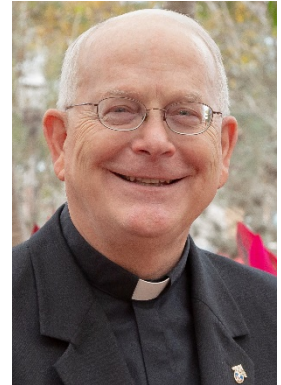

MISSION

NCMAF connects member faith groups with military and VA chaplaincies, and celebrates the religious diversity of the United States of America.

VISION

NCMAF will advocate for the First Amendment and provide a unified voice on religious freedom and religious diversity.

P. O. Box 7572
Arlington, VA 22207-9998
703-489-8918
www.ncmaf.net

Robert R. Cannon

Executive Committee Member-At-Large

Robert R. Cannon, Ch, Colonel USAF (Ret.) is an ordained Roman Catholic priest. Fr. Bob serves as the Chancellor for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA, in Washington, DC. He is the representative of the Most Rev. Archbishop Timothy P. Broglio to NCMAF.

He served for 29.5 years both in the USAF Reserves and on Active Duty at all levels of ministry: Wing, USAF Academy, Command, and AF Chief of Chaplains staff.

Fr. Bob brings a wide range of pastoral experience not only from his service as a chaplain but also from his civilian ministry, which includes associate pastor, cathedral rector, judicial vicar, diocesan treasurer, and seminary professor. Fr. Bob has multiple advanced degrees in divinity, theology, education, anthropology, and canon law. He is currently a doctoral candidate in canon law.

Protecting and defending the free exercise of religion and supporting religious accommodation for our military members and their families are causes close to his heart.