

National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces

MISSION

*NCMAF connects member faith groups with
military and VA chaplaincies,
and celebrates the
religious diversity of the United States of America.*

VISION

*NCMAF will advocate
for the First Amendment
and provide a unified voice
on religious freedom
and religious diversity.*

P. O. Box 7572
Arlington, VA 22207-9998
703-489-8918
www.ncmaf.net

The Right Reverend Bishop Derek Jones

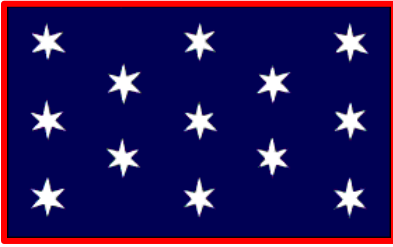

Executive Committee Chair

The Right Reverend Derek Jones serves as the Chair for NCMAF. Bishop Jones was consecrated in 2007 and has been serving on the NCMAF Executive Committee in various positions since 2009.

Bishop Jones is the Bishop of the Armed Forces and Chaplaincy for the Anglican Church in North America (ACNA). In his role, he trains, educates, ordains, and directs the activities of all Anglican Chaplains, within the ACNA, requiring formal ecclesiastical endorsement, serving in the United States Armed Forces, Veteran's Administration, Department of Justice, and other Federal and State agencies; as well as Chaplains serving with and through a variety of non-governmental. Bishop Jones has served as an endorsing official since January 2007 and is the founding bishop of the Chaplain ministry for the ACNA (though CANA) and is the first Bishop of the Armed Forces and Chaplaincy for the Jurisdiction of the Armed Forces and Chaplaincy (ACNA). He is also a member of the College of Bishops in the Church of Nigeria (Anglican Communion).

Bishop Jones is a retired combat veteran fighter pilot having flown the F-111, CF-18, T-37, and F-16 fighter aircraft. His awards over his 28-year career of service include the Combat Air Medal and numerous "Top Gun" awards. His last assignment before retiring was as the Reserve Advisor to the Commander and Director of Staff for the Air Force Doctrine Center, collocated at Maxwell AFB and the Pentagon.

Bishop Jones continues to advocate for Air Power and previously served as the President of the Birmingham, AL Chapter of the Air Force Association (2012-2013). In civic areas, Bishop Jones has been an adjudicator for the United States Pony Club (USPC) and has served on the National Quiz Committee for that organization. He was named a Distinguished Honorary Alumni of Nashotah House Seminary in Wisconsin in 2015. In his off-time, Bishop Jones enjoys working with his horses and outdoor activities. An accomplished musician and a National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces

MISSION

*NCMAF connects
member faith groups with
military and VA chaplaincies,
and celebrates the
religious diversity of the United States of America.*

VISION

*NCMAF will advocate
for the First Amendment
and provide a unified voice
on religious freedom
and religious diversity.*

P. O. Box 7572
Arlington, VA 22207-9998
703-489-8918
www.ncmaf.net

member of Phi Mu Alpha, he enjoys vocal performance and little theater. The Bishop and his wife, Connie, have 2 daughters and five granddaughters and make their home in Montevallo, AL.