

National Conference on Ministry to the Armed Forces

MISSION

NCMAF connects member faith groups with military and VA chaplaincies, and celebrates the religious diversity of the United States of America.

VISION

*NCMAF will advocate for the First Amendment
and provide a unified voice on religious freedom and religious diversity.*

P. O. Box 7572
Arlington, VA 22207-9998
703-489-8918
www.ncmaf.net

Rev. Sarah Roelofs

Executive Committee Member-At-Large

Rev. Sarah Roelofs is the Director of Chaplaincy and Care Ministry and the ecclesiastical endorser for the Christian Reformed Church in North America. Rev. Roelofs provides pastoral support, advocacy, and training for 150 chaplains living throughout Canada and the United States. She graduated from Dordt University in Sioux Center, Iowa, and completed her Master of Divinity at Calvin Theological Seminary in Grand Rapids, Michigan. Rev. Roelofs has worked as a chaplain in several acute care hospitals in Indiana and Colorado, and has served as a US Air Force Reserve chaplain. Rev. Roelofs is board certified by the Association of Professional Chaplains. She and her husband, Justin, and their two children reside in Grand Rapids, Michigan.